

APGNN New Member Engagement Scholarship Application

Overview:

Purpose: To provide financial assistance to attend the APGNN annual meeting to support the educational development of new members.

Conference Information: October 4-7, 2023, in San Diego, CA

Eligibility: Full or Associate New APGNN Member within the past 1 year, with no outstanding dues.

Selection Criteria: APGNN board members will review all applications; selection is based on creativity, practicality, and impact on patients, families, and colleagues in pediatric GI.

Award: One member will be awarded $1000. Attendance at the conference is required to receive the award.

Application Submission:

Deadline: August 1, 2023

Submission: Applications should be submitted in PDF format to the APGNN Membership Chair (Macy Carobene: mcaroben@montefiore.org)

Application: Please include the following information:

- Name, job title, and place of employment
- Background of clinical practice/experience (i.e. – nurse graduate, new to GI, etc.)
- Please explain why you chose to join APGNN and what you hope to gain from membership and conference attendance.
- Scholarship recipient will be asked to join an APGNN Committee with a commitment of one year; please indicate the committee of your choice in the application and why this would be of interest.
- APGNN Committees:
 - Clinical Practice
 - Clinical Inquiry
 - Media
 - Membership
 - Patient & Professional Education
 - Program Planning