

APGNN Patient and Professional Education Award

This award aims to recognize outstanding pediatric GI educational activities. The selected awardee will receive $1000, presented at the APGNN Annual Conference.

Requirements:

- APGNN member in good standing
- Implementation of an educational project
- Attendance in person and present your work at the APGNN annual conference
- Featured in the APGNN newsletter and website
- Join the Patient and Professional Education (or other) committee for the following year
- You may also submit an application (poster or abstract) for the annual conference in tandem with this award as long as it meets eligibility criteria
- Submit application via this Google Form <https://forms.gle/4tGPvn4v17K2HjmC6> OR to the Patient and Professional Education Committee Chair via email kksar@stanfordchildrens.org. Please include your email, name, credentials, employer, photo, CV, name and description of project.

Examples of Previous Award Winners:

- Digestive health new nurse mentor program
- Development of telehealth education program for new start Dupilumab
- Development of an education brochure for progressive familial intrahepatic cholestasis
- Implementation of IBD educational training for newly diagnosed patients
- Addressing social determinants of health in pediatric constipation

Deadline: August 1, 2026

Questions: Contact the Patient & Professional Education Committee Chair, Kari Ksar kksar@stanfordchildrens.org